Wall Street financiers say if there is prices.

Foreign houses report that the advance in our stocks in London this morning has been mostly on orders sent from this side.

There was a report current last evening that one of the banking houses here had arranged to ship $2,000,000 gold to Paris by the steamer Deutschland, sailing on Thursday. This could not be confirmed in any way. Foreign exchange experts, however, say gold can be shipped at a moderate profit on prevailing quotations, and unless there is some important development in the market between now and Thursday morning they believe such a shipment as above stated will go out, and it would be fol lowed by more exports on the next fast steamer.
